

Pindan honoured

PROPERTY and construction company Pindan has won the top honour in the Property Council of Australia (WA) Innovation and Excellence Awards.

The business received a WA Property Project Marketing Award as well as the overall prize for the $34 million Cygne Crawley Edge luxury apartment complex on Mounts Bay Road in Nedlands. The development, which features 19 apartments and 14 commercial tenancies, has already won a series of accolades including a 2007 Australian Housing Award.