

Calvin marks his territory

Bepie Hulyk from Guide Dogs WA and Guide Dog ambassador Calvin with Troy Gorton and Simon Mokdad from Pindan.

CALVIN, the canine ambassador for Guide Dogs WA, left his stamp of approval on the foundation of a charity home in Viveash last week.

The concrete slab for the home was poured on Tuesday, March 24, with Calvin's paw print immortalised forever.

The home is being built by Pindan and will be auctioned to raise money for the Association for the Blind of WA.

About 37,000 Western Australians are affected by blindness or vision loss.

It costs about $35,000 to train each of the Association's guide dogs.
